Established in 1988, creating their own niche by crafting completely unique, contemporary knitwear in vibrant, bespoke colours. IrelandsEye has quickly evolved into the most respected international brand in their class.

Mucros Weavers, est. 1964 in Muckross House, Killarney National Park, is Ireland's foremost supplier of woven goods. Using fine wools, linens and craftsmanship, their range includes handbags, capes, blazers, men's and women's headwear and scarves that are woven on 200 year old Hattersley looms.

Over 60 years of family heritage and dedication to craftsmanship, design and premium yarns, Westend Knitwear is now the world's largest Aran knit sweater producer.
