THE STORY OF FOXFORD

FOXFORD has been devoted to creating quality design and craftsmanship since 1892.

All our products are woven in our mill in Foxford, a small town in County Mayo in the west of Ireland. Colours and textures of the West of Ireland landscape are a source of inspiration for our design team.

We employ local skilled crafts people who are devoted to creating high-quality products.

At FOXFORD, we value our heritage.

LAMBSWOOL CONNEMARA THROW

Dimensions: 140 x 180 cm / 55 x 71 inch
100% Lambswool

Designed in a traditional Irish plaid reminiscent of the first blankets to be woven in our mill, the Connemara Throw takes its name from the wild and rugged landscape of Connemara in North West Galway. The deep purple, blue and green tones have been meticulously chosen by our designer Helen McAlinden to reflect the mountains, lakes and rivers of this beautiful area. Made from 100% lambswool, this soft throw is expertly woven at FOXFORD using the same techniques that have been employed for over 130 years.

A note from our designer, Helen McAlinden:

“To celebrate 130 years of timeless, Irish craftsmanship, we wanted to go back to our roots and pay homage to the landscape that first inspired us all those years ago.”

MICHAEL COLLINS THROW

In early 1922, Foxford Woollen Mills presented a specially commissioned Travel Blanket to General Michael Collins, to mark his appointment as Commander in Chief of the newly established Irish Army.

The blanket was in his armoured car at the ambush at Béal Na Bláth in August 1922. It was recovered at Shanakiel Hospital by Nurse Nora O'Donoghue and later donated to the National Museum.

Foxford Woollen Mills reproduced the blanket in 2016 in conjunction with Michael Collins House, Clonakilty, Co. Cork.
